Dear Up and Running Software, Inc.,

Practical knowledge and passionate educators are cornerstones of Iowa State University and the College of Design. Whether fabricating explosion-resistant trash receptacles that could make our public places safer or creating toolkits or communities to enhance local food options, the students and faculty in the College of Design take our understanding of human aspirations and employ it to reimagine the future for all people.

This is possible because of the generous and passionate Cyclone community. Your gift to the College of Design Excellence Fund is one critical way you impact the college— which extends beyond our campus. Thank you!

Your generosity ensures that students, faculty, and the broader College of Design community can help advance society in the state of Iowa and beyond. Whether applying design thinking to Main Street's challenges or the world's, students and faculty in the College of Design are practicing with the purpose of enhancing the human experience and improving the natural, social, and built environment sustainably and responsibly.

If we can be of assistance, please contact me at 515.294.7427 or lrico@iastate.edu. We always enjoy hearing from fellow Cyclones!

With gratitude,

Luis Rico-Gutierrez
